

America-Israel Friendship League honors Ishay Davidi

America-Israel Friendship League presented its 2013 Partners for Democracy Award to Ishay Davidi, Founder and CEO of FIMI Opportunity Funds. The Awards Dinner took place on October 21, 2013 at The Plaza Hotel in New York City. Sheldon G. Adelson and Dr. Miriam Adelson also received awards.

Kenneth J. Bialkin, Chairman of the Board of AIFL, announced "We are honored that our honorees are Sheldon G. Adelson and Dr. Miriam Adelson from Las Vegas, and Ishay Davidi from Israel. Our three honorees are widely respected for their philanthropic activities in both the United States and Israel."

Ishay Davidi, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Israel's largest private equity investment firm FIMI Opportunity Funds, is a long-time supporter of various medical institutions and organizations focused on children in need.

Ambassador Dan Gillerman chaired the dinner. Natan Sharansky and Professor Elie Wiesel participated in the program, which included a special video message from Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.
